You Say Party! We Say Die!

The Gap

2 Girls and 3 Boys are reaching fever pitch in Vancouver's indie rock scene with their insanely catchy beats and viciously fun live show.

Errrrrrr.....Well, let me correct this:

2 Girls and 3 Boys have been reaching fever pitch in Vancouver's indie rock scene with their insanely catchy beats and viciously fun live show and currently they conquer the indie world around the globe.

YOU SAY PARTY! WE SAY DIE! got their start in April 2004 with their independently released EP entitled "Dansk Wad" (dance squad). Today fans are eagerly anticipating the release of their debut full-length "Hit the Floor" with up-and-coming Vancouver label Sound Document Records.

The energized, spastic album is a clever collision of synthy beats and melodies that explode in danceable tracks and punk rock anthems. Reminiscent of the vocal stylings of Yeah Yeah Yeah's, YSP!WSD! built upon textured melodic ideas that complimented their spastic, but richly diverse rock riffs.

YSP!WSD!'s perpetually dance-inducing tracks have gained them considerable attention among the dance rock scene in Vancouver, so much that they've found themselves opening for Pretty Girls Make Graves, SNFU and DOA.
